“ I remember Steve from my high school days. He was cute and sweet with a shy smile. I haven't seen him in years, but knew from other friends what a fine man he had become. God Bless and keep you all in this time of loss.

“ I do not remember not knowing Steve. My earliest memories are of childhood sunday school which he was a part of. Then, we shared the halls of SGHS. And, now, adults our families share a special bond. So, know that he will be missed greatly by all of us and know that Brian and I, Craig, Abbie and Grandaddy Joe will be here for all of you. Always. “ Sue, Tina, Charlese, Calla, Stephanie our hearts go out to you. We along with a host of Steve's friends were very saddened to learn of Steve's passing. He was a likeable man and seemed to inherit his dad's humor. We go way back with Steve even to Gene and Rodney's childhood, then Rodney and Sue's marriage and then to Steve's adulthood. He did some grading and hauling for us not so long ago. He was a very helping person. May God undergird you with His strength and might now and in the days ahead. Our love to you.

“ It saddened my heart to hear of Steve's passing. Although we had been friends for a very long time, our paths did not cross that often. His family meant the world to him and I know for a fact that he loved all three of his daughters with everything he had within him. He will be missed dearly. No more "ssdd" for Steve. He has peace that shall never end.
