Terri had a love for children and their development. Many times she would take money she needed to buy items for her day care kids if she believed they would not get it otherwise. She was almost always upbeat and would lighten up any room full of people, in spite of any physical ailment she might be having. She was strong mentally and spiritually, and had a compassionate heart for those who were hurting. She will be greatly missed, but she is in Heaven now and is at peace and enjoying a much-needed rest from the cares of this world.

“ I don't know how I didn't hear about Teri's passing back in September. Her husband Tony, is my cousin. I met Terri back in 1984 when we visited Alabama from our home in Michigan. I saw her on a few more occasions when we were down there. She was the sweetest young lady, always happy, smiling, kind. She shared her interest in the Daughter's of the Confederacy I believe it was. I always had great interest in the Civil War. All I can say is that I am shocked and truly saddened by this. I pray that Tony, their two children and Terri's Family have found solace with the help and Grace of God!

“ Terri had the most beautiful giggle, if you were feeling down you would feel lifted up, joyous is a good description of who she was. The world has lost a wonderful person but heaven has gained an incredible angel. My thoughts and prayers are with her family I still love you all.
