

Thomas "Tim" Moody Cowan Jr.

August 23, 1945 - September 21, 2023

Thomas "Tim" Moody Cowan, Jr. 78, of Piedmont passed away Thursday, September 21, 2023 in Anniston, Alabama. Tim was born the only child on August 23, 1945 to the late Thomas "Tom" Moody Cowan, Sr. and Demetrius "Dee" Francis Clark Cowan in Jacksonville, Florida. Visitation for Tim will be Saturday, September 23, 2023 at the First United Methodist Church of Piedmont from 2 until 3 PM with the funeral following at 3:00 PM. Burial will follow in Highland Cemetery. Dr. Michael Burgess will officiate along with Rev. Keith Merritt and Pastor Donnie Rader. Survivors include his devoted loving wife of 41 years, Wanda Ford Cowan; son & daughter-in-law, Aubrey Ford Cowan & Heather; grandchildren, Grady Thomas Cowan, John Ellis Cowan, and Amelia Ruth Cowan; lifelong friends, Archie Parkinson (Meta) and Bill Lee (Patty); special cousins, Neil Clark, and Wayne Estes; special friends, Ray and Francis Malone; and a number of close cousins. Pallbearers will be Josh Droxler, Brett Kirkpatrick, Chuck Lockridge, Ryan Maddox, Blake Morrison, Charles Newman, Eric Ray, and Ryan Saccucci.

Tim was retired from ATT (Bellsouth) with 31 years of service and a U.S. Naval Reserve veteran during the Vietnam War. He was a longtime member of the First United Methodist Church, serving on many boards and committees. Tim came to Piedmont in 1975 and homesteaded a home for his family on family land. Tim was a top-notch mechanic, handy man, and breakfast cook around the house. He loved vintage Nascar racing, classic cars, penning Christmas letters to send out every year. He enjoyed Coca Cola

Classic, hotdogs, Blue Bell ice cream, boiled peanuts, and his mother's baking. Tim and Wanda loved to ride the Gator to check the mail with all their grandkids and French bulldogs, Jill and Riley. He was a English Bulldog, Boxer, and French Bulldogs owner over his life having numerous he loved and adored. To know Tim, you know, he had a wit about him and a sense of humor that no one else rivaled. Flowers may be sent or memorial contributions may be made to the First Methodist Church of Piedmont, 300 North Main Street, Piedmont, AL, 36272.
