“ I remember Violet going to school. We road the bus together when I was growing up. She was a sweet person. She drove the bus through by our house and we would wave at each other when I was in the yard. She will be missed dearly I know from her family, friends and students that road her bus for years. Our prayers go out to the family.

“ To the family- David and I send our deepest condolences. There never seem to be the right words to comfort during this time but please know how much we thought of Violent. She was so giving to others. She opened her home and her heart to many friends and family. As days go by may you find comfort in the fond memories you all shared. God Bless. Rest now sweet lady. You will be missed.
