“ Dear Ingram Family,

I have known Wenton for much of my life. I remember him from the post office and knew, and admired, his dad who had the ability to take the most difficult song in a book and sing it to perfection. Please accept our thoughts and prayers for each of you. May God bless and keep you in His care.

“ I really enjoyed my talks with Wenton and Bobbie. Wenton was always keen and showed depth of thought with each conversation. I know our Savior and Wenton rejoiced at their reunion. Bobbie, Carol and I are praying for you and your family at this time of loss. Remember that "precious in the site of the LORD is the death of His saints" --Junior and Carol Tunnell

“ Although I didn't see Wenton often in the last few years, he was a great uncle. He had a sense of humor and could have you laughing in no time. I have the memories (and pictures) of all of us together in different places for a family gathering. My Mom never said it but I know she adored her older brother. And, she had some stories of him when they were kids that she shared, he was a typical brother! I know he's home now with his Savior and that's such a comfort to those of left behind to mourn his passing. Pam Cardin (Jordan), niece.

“ This is not a memory but is instead something I never got the chance to say to him.

*Wenton,
Thank you for loving my mother and making her happier than I ever remember her being. Thank you for your kindness to me, for telling me I was your daughter and making me feel like I mattered. I will forever regret that time and circumstances did not allow us to know each other better.*
